Hot hotter hottest penny stocks

A penny stock is termed hot stock or turns into a hot penny stock if it gives or assures high returns to the investor who buys it when the stock was at low face value. The investor had speculated that the stock value even though low at present would turn into high value in a short time. The investor therefore buys this stock at a risk, for the investor has knowledge and predicts that this stock value would rise in a day or so. If this happens so, then this penny stock would be termed as penny stock. Such hot penny stock is tracked by the professional or regular investors and with time they draw up a list of such hot penny stock to call it their top penny stocks list. It
